Fees, discounts and waivers are subject to change at any time, and we reserve the right to implement new fees in the future. Morgan Stanley reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to discount or waive any fees. If you have any questions regarding these fees, please contact a member of your Morgan Stanley team or call the number on your account statement.

² To qualify for Reserved fee waivers, a client's household must have and maintain a minimum of $2,000,000 in eligible assets and liabilities or paid at least $20,000 in managed fees/commissions. Eligible Assets and Liabilities generally include the following: Cash, Equities, Bonds, Certificates of Deposit (CDs), Alternative Investments (including Managed Futures), Unit Investment Trusts, Exchange-Traded Funds, Mutual Funds, 529 Plans, Insurance, Annuities, outstanding balances on securities-based loans (including Margin, Non-Purpose Margin, and Liquidity Access Line), and Residential Mortgage Loans/Home Equity Lines of Credit (Residential mortgage loans/home equity lines of credit offered by Morgan Stanley Private Bank, National Association, an affiliate of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC. A relationship does not have to be maintained with Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC or its affiliates in order to be eligible for a residential mortgage loan made by MSPBNA.) Annual managed fees/commissions paid is generally defined as revenue generated in fee-based accounts and commissions generated in non-fee based accounts, and is calculated on a rolling 12-month basis. Not all revenue is included; Morgan Stanley reserves the right to exclude certain items of revenue in its sole discretion. There is no cost to be enrolled in the Reserved fee waiver program. Morgan Stanley reserves the right to change or terminate the Reserved fee waiver program at any time and without notice. Notwithstanding the fact that a client has achieved Reserved status, Morgan Stanley reserves the right to charge any fee that is normally waived for a Reserved client if a determination is made in Morgan Stanley's discretion that the client's usage of any such service is beyond the scope of what is normal and customary and is abusive or excessive. Reserved fee waiver program participants' accounts and activity are reviewed periodically to confirm that they continue to qualify for Reserved fee waivers. Morgan Stanley households are evaluated using eligible assets and liabilities and annual managed fees/commissions paid from Morgan Stanley or a combination of E*TRADE from Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley accounts. Eligible E*TRADE assets and liabilities, and annual managed fees/commissions paid are included only for clients who also maintain eligible Morgan Stanley accounts. Clients who qualify for the Morgan Stanley Reserved fee waiver program may also be eligible to enroll in Morgan Stanley's complimentary loyalty program, Reserved Living & Giving. For information on how to qualify for the Reserved Living & Giving program please visit msreserved.com.

³ The annual account fee for Active Assets Accounts (AAA) will be charged on a go-forward basis and will be charged on the following dates: (a) on or about the 10th business day following a 90 calendar day grace period after opening your AAA, regardless of account balance; (b) for subsequent years, if your account is funded, annual account fees will be charged on or about the 10th business day of the month after your account anniversary date. Your annual account fee will be automatically debited from the AAA. Accounts that close prior to the end of the grace period will not be charged. A reduced fee will be assessed to those who enroll in eDelivery – for all documents pertaining to every account within the ALG.

⁴ The annual account fee for Morgan Stanley Basic Securities Accounts will be charged on a go-forward basis and is due and payable on or about the 10th business day of the month after your account anniversary date. Converted Smith Barney Basic Securities Accounts will be charged each December in arrears. If your converted Smith Barney Basic Securities Account closes or transfers to another Firm prior to the annual December billing, a prorated annual account fee will be charged. Once an annual account fee has been charged, we may, in our discretion, refund all or any part of such annual account fee if the account closes or becomes inactive. A reduced fee will be assessed to those who enroll in eDelivery – for all documents pertaining to every account within the ALG.

⁶ The annual account fee for the Versatile Investment Program (VIP) Basic, VIP Plus and Retirement Plan Manager (RPM) accounts will be charged for any calendar year or portion of any calendar year during which you have a subaccount with us (and is charged once for each such account). The fee is due each September or, in the event of transfer or termination, upon account closure. For accounts that are opened between September and December and therefore miss the scheduled billing cycle, the fee is due in January of the following calendar year. A reduced fee will be assessed to those who enroll in eDelivery – for all documents pertaining to every account within the ALG. The annual fee for Business Retirement VIP and RPM accounts is assessed for the entire plan and is either paid by the plan sponsor or equalized across all fee eligible subaccounts of the plan. If the fee is charged to subaccounts, the reduced fee for all eDelivery may not be fully realized by the particular subaccount that is enrolled. VIP Basic, VIP Plus and RPM qualified plans that are governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) or are not governed by ERISA but cover multiple participants are not eligible to receive annual account fee waivers due to Reserved status. However, VIP Basic, VIP Plus or RPM qualified plans which cover only the business owner or business owner and spouse are eligible for account fee waivers due to Reserved status.

⁷ CashPlus Brokerage Accounts may be charged a monthly account fee, which will be charged on or about the 10th business day of the month after the fee is incurred. ⁸ A Low-Balance Household fee will be charged quarterly, in addition to any applicable annual account fee, to Morgan Stanley households with less than $25,000 in eligible assets and liabilities. Morgan Stanley households are evaluated using eligible assets and liabilities from Morgan Stanley or a combination of E*TRADE from Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley accounts. Eligible assets and liabilities are based upon the higher of the average month-end assets and liabilities over the previous three months or the month-end assets on the last day of the previous month. All accounts within a household will be included in determining the total eligible assets and liabilities. The fee will be charged to only one account in the household. If there is more than one eligible account in the household, the household will be assessed the fee in ascending market value in the following order: AAAs (including Business Accounts), BSAs, IRAs. Only AAA, BSA, and certain IRAs (Traditional, Rollover, Inherited or Roth) can be charged the Low-Balance Household fee. If multiple trades are the result of block trade allocations, the fee will be charged on each trade.

Please review the GlobalCurrency Disclosure Statement at <http://www.morganstanley.com/wealth-disclosures/disclosures.html> for more information.
